

Jacksonville Beach lifeguards train locals in Peru

Lima, Dec. 30 (ANDINA).- Several Jacksonville Beach Lifeguards arrived from Florida to Peru to train locals on how to be lifeguards.

The lifeguards without borders brought with them donated equipment and first aid gear to help the Peruvians set up a lifesaving corps.

The First Coast contingent is working with Salvavidas International.

Peruvian lifeguards. Photo. Archive

These people will remain in Peru until mid-January to teach Peruvians lifeguards how to manage their work.

(END) INT/MCS

